“ Angie and family, Words can't express the sense of loss that is felt by Keith's untimely passing. May you find strength in the love of those around you. It was with overwhelming shock upon hearing the sad news. Keith was a good man, a hard worker and a true friend that was always willing to help out and lend his expertise in time of need. I'll sorely miss his company, but have many fond memories of good times to see me through. Its still hard to believe. He went way to soon. RIP brother

“ You joined the white rose group far too early. May you have a wonderful happy reunion with all who have gone before you. I see you with outstretched arms catching Willie for long awaited hugs. Receiving a welcome hug from Carol & Nan; a pat on your back from Pap & Doug. Willie & Carol take you over to rainbow bridge to all your fur babies. Your job now is to enjoy and take care of everyone there especially Willie. You look back and know Angie has here covered. She still has a job to do watching over Jazz and David, even though they are adults, they still need their Mom. I pray heaven is all this and much more for you. Keep a space open for each of us as we make our way there in God's time. Know that you are loved, remembered, and missed very much by all here every day, hour and minute. Continue to watch over us all especially your parents because as you know, to lose a child is one of life's hardest things to endure. RIP my nephew. With much love, Your Aunt

“ My condolences to Angie, Jazzy and David on your loss. May you find strength in each other during this tragic time. To Gary and Eileen, no parent should have to endure losing a grandson and then their son at such a young age. I hope you can find a combined strength in each other as you bid your son farewell. I can't begin to imagine your pain. Know you did a great job raising him. In 46 years he lived life to the fullest each day. Always fixing, tinkering, couldn't be still. Always there when anyone needed help. Keith was a good son, man, husband and father living up to all his responsibilities. He will be remembered, loved and missed. His laughter in his eyes even as a baby smashing two Easter Eggs together unable to walk without his Mommy's hand.
