

Kerry A. Dullebawn

October 20, 1962 - June 10, 2023

Kerry A. Dullebawn, 60, of Mount Joy, passed away on Saturday, June 10, 2023, at his residence. Born in Lebanon, he was the son of the late George Dullebawn and Mary (Zimmerman) Dullebawn of Lebanon. He was the loving husband of Lisa M. (Lanni) Dullebawn, with whom he shared 18 happy years. Kerry will also be missed by his son Loreto A. Duellebawn, of Mount Joy, a brother George Dullebawn, husband of Lori, of Cleona, and a nephew Shane Dullebawn, of Lebanon.

Kerry was a graduate of Lebanon High School. He worked as the Operational Technology Sr. Systems Administrator at Peach Bottom. Kerry was a member of the Mount Joy Sportsmen's Association. He loved making military models, especially tanks. Kerry was passionate about listening to, writing, and producing music. He enjoyed a good book and liked outdoor activities like hunting, hiking, camping, and backpacking.

A Memorial Service will take place at Sheetz Funeral Home, Inc., 16 E. Main St., Mount Joy, PA 17552, on July 8, 2023, at 11 AM. The family will receive friends following the service. The interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Mount Joy Sportsmen's Association 85 Range Rd, Mount Joy, PA 17552 or World Central Kitchen Attn: Donor Services Team, 200 Massachusetts Ave NW, 7th Floor, Washington, DC 20001.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

JUL 8. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

Sheetz Funeral Home
16 East Main Street
Mount Joy, PA

Tribute Wall

DK

“ Kerry will always be a chapter in my personal book of life....rest in peace comrade.

Denis Kulbitsky - July 07, 2023 at 05:11 PM

MS

“ Michael Sole lit a candle in memory of Kerry A. Dullebawn

Michael Sole - July 07, 2023 at 08:36 AM

CK

I have known Kerry for over 40 years. I'm sure everyone who met him quickly realized he had a larger-than-life personality and even a bigger laugh! I have so many fond memories of Kerry. My heart goes out to his family. He was truly a one of a kind person and he will be missed.

Chris Kemble - July 08, 2023 at 10:17 AM

AB

“ I met Kerry in 2011 at TMI and quickly learned that he had a larger-than-life personality and no one else could make me laugh so hard! He also had a knack for diffusing tense situations in the workplace. Kerry and I shared a love of WW II history and we frequently talked about the subject - I will miss those conversations. He recently shared pictures of a German Tiger Tank that he was building as his latest modeling project - a master at detailed work for sure! Lisa and Larry - so very sorry for your loss!

Andy Bomboy - July 05, 2023 at 11:11 AM

GB

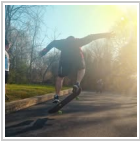

“ Kerry was working as a contract CAD drafter with Hershey Foods when I started there in October of 1989. Our boss took me around to meet everyone on my first day. When we got to Kerry's cubicle, I noticed a magazine on his desk that was about WWII Luftwaffe aces and their airplanes. I knew right then we were gonna hit it off. Our mutual interest in all things military, combined with the hierarchy in our department led me to calling him "Sarge" and to him, I was "Lt". He shortly got me into playing paintball with his team, the "Apache Warriors", which was a two-weekend-a-month deal that happened on his brother's property in Jonestown. Some of that crew, which included his brother and his dad, also took part in gatherings at a co-worker's property where we would shoot real guns. Kerry could absorb recoil from a tactical shotgun to the point where he looked like he was shooting a .22! I had just re-established contact with him within the last two years after too long a time and was looking forward to meeting up with him again. That will now have to wait until we reunite on that great shooting range in the sky where all the guns are full auto and the ammo never runs out! Rest in peace, Sarge!

Greg Braskie - July 02, 2023 at 08:35 AM

L(

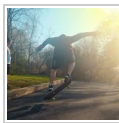

“ Kerry was one of my mentors and an all around great guy. He taught me how to interview and how to slow down to enjoy having a conversation with the folks you work with. We were lucky to have his expertise and he is definitely missed 💙 sending warm wishes and prayers to his family

Lea Eller (Owrutsky) - June 26, 2023 at 08:09 PM

“ "You were my mentor and my sanity at the start of my Career, I am so sorry we didn't stay as in touch these last few years. I will miss you brother, I have no other to stand watch at the gate with me...lol."

Jeremy Hale - June 20, 2023 at 11:33 AM

Oh, and for a story... I had just gotten hired on at Exelon from being a contractor. We were anticipating a visit from one of the Directors as we stood around the coffee machine engaging in our normal morning banter. About 10 minutes after the Director arrived and did his initial introductions our manager ushered us to the server room inconspicuously. As the door shut, the smile drained completely from his face and said, "Seriously, it is a good thing Andy has a sense of humor, he came in here to the sound of you 3 in a serious debate of the best arms and armor for a Zombie apocalypse...a #####ing Zombie Apocalypse." About 30 minutes later Andy was convinced by Kerry's argument about the Shotgun and combat shovel combo.

Jeremy Hale - June 20, 2023 at 11:48 AM

AR

“ Lisa, Larry and family- I am so sorry to hear of Kerry's passing. He seemed like such a great father and husband. Praying for you and your family at this time. Amy and Todd Raffensperger

Amy Raffensperger - June 18, 2023 at 10:29 AM

AH

“ Angela Harris lit a candle in memory of Kerry A. Dullebawn

Angela Harris - June 17, 2023 at 11:23 PM

TS

“ Kerry and I had many good times back in the day and many come to mind, but one will always stick out. One Saturday back around 1992 we went to a gun shop called Gun Gallery in Reading (we went there countless times) but on this day what I called the fastest trip In the United States was about to go down. We get to the Gun Gallery and start looking around after a little bit I hear my name called and go over to see Kerry holding a Yugoslavian AK-47 and he had that look in his eye. So he gives the guy a few dollars to hold it and tells him we'll be right back, we get in the car and pedal to the metal. We went from north Reading to Lebanon in 35 minutes, on a good day it takes an hour, ran I don't know how many red lights...we couldn't figure out why people were sitting in the intersection so we went out around them. Get to Kerry's house he runs in comes back out with his 1911 pistol for a partial trade in and we fly back the the Gun Gallery to pick up his AK-47 thus completing the fastest trip in the United States. Sadly we fell out of touch and hoped to run into him again....R.I.P Brother

Tony Shutter - June 16, 2023 at 04:48 PM

AL

“ Angela Lewis

2 minutes ago

I would be remiss if I didn't add the zombie story. One night me, my husband Bill and friend Ace were having a firepit 2 doors down from Kerry. Halfway through the evening, we start hearing weird noises. Our yard is surrounded by huge pine trees and it was pitch black out so obviously we couldn't see anything. A little bit later, we hear noises again...they sounded like ducks mating. Lol. I'm thinking it's 930 pm and ducks are probably sleeping, but what do I know about duck biology? The noises got louder and lasted longer. My friend bolted into the house, and me and Bill went to investigate like two nimrods in a Friday the 13th movie. Come to find out, Kerry...in full camo gear ..had set up walkie talkies around our perimeter and was broadcasting zombie noises from audio track!!! Lisa told us how much fun they had sneaking over and setting it all up. It was beyond elaborate and completely hysterical. We will never forget our zombie invasion!!

Angela Lewis - June 16, 2023 at 11:00 AM

AL

“ Kerry was our neighbor and dear friend. We spent many meals, firepits and a trip together. He was a presence in the room. He had such a dry wit and knew so much about every subject. Ask him about the wet-bottomed brazilian rain flea, and he'd know all about it. Lisa and Kerry were best friends, and he adored his son. He knew all about bushcraft and taught us so much. He'd go to the nursing home and paint his mother's nails!! That was the kind of person Kerry was. We will miss him, his fireside chats and his dry humor so much. Blessings Kerry, as you travel into your next adventure and dimension.

Angela Lewis - June 16, 2023 at 10:44 AM

AL

I would be remiss if I didn't add the zombie story. One night me, my husband Bill and friend Ace were having a firepit 2 doors down from Kerry. Halfway through the evening, we start hearing weird noises. Our yard is surrounded by huge pine trees and it was pitch black out so obviously we couldn't see anything. A little bit later, we hear noises again...they sounded like ducks mating. Lol. I'm thinking it's 930 pm and ducks are probably sleeping, but what do I know about duck biology? The noises got louder and lasted longer. My friend bolted into the house, and me and Bill went to investigate like two nimrods in a Friday the 13th movie. Come to find out, Kerry...in full camo gear ..had set up walkie talkies around our perimeter and was broadcasting zombie noises from audio track!!! Lisa told us how much fun they had sneaking over and setting it all up. It was beyond elaborate and completely hysterical. We will never forget our zombie invasion!!

Angela Lewis - June 16, 2023 at 10:57 AM

KL

“ Kerry was an incredible dad, husband and son. I was always so touched by his love and care for his family and life. We loved visiting and enjoying his wonderful hospitality and kindness and thoughtful conversation. The world has been enriched by his example and presence with us. Much love to his family.

Kristin Witbeck Lee - June 16, 2023 at 10:41 AM

KC

“ Kerry was very well liked and respected at Peach Bottom. He is and will continue to be missed by many in the PB community.

Ken Cutler - June 16, 2023 at 10:09 AM

“ I remember how nervous he was at TMI while he was a contractor. We had many talks together and then he was hired as an employee. He was so proud of his son, he'd come in to work very tired but would light up as soon as you'd get him talking about his family. He had such a presence about him. I will definitely miss him.

Rick Kaylor - June 16, 2023 at 09:18 AM

“ Kerry and Lisa were the sweetest next door neighbors to Bob and I. Lisa I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Deb Cooney

Deb Cooney - June 16, 2023 at 07:11 AM

“ Tony Shutter lit a candle in memory of Kerry A. Dullebawn

Tony Shutter - June 15, 2023 at 07:31 PM