“ Chas I'm so very sorry for your loss. I never had the privilege of meeting your son but I felt like I knew him from all the stories and pictures we've shared all of these years that you've been doing my hair. It seems like you have a lot of loving people surrounding you right now but if I can be there for you at all or do anything to help you please please don't hesitate to reach out. I'm praying for you every day and you have been in my heart and thoughts for days now. Hugs and love girl I'm so sorry.

“ My deepest condolences to your family. I remember hanging out with Kevin as a kid just down the street in Millersville. All the fun times we would jump on the trampoline and hang out at the park. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. Will be praying for you and your family❤️
