

Kimberly Joy Smith

February 8, 1966 - October 22, 2021

Kimberly Joy Smith, age 55, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, passed away peacefully in her sleep the morning of Friday, October 22nd, 2021.

Kim was born February 8th, 1966, to Baden and Joyce Cosby in Norristown, Pennsylvania. On March 23rd, 1988, she welcomed her and Brian Smith's first child, Berlin. She then married Brian on November 2nd, 1990. Later, she welcomed her other two children, Brandon and Alexa, on April 22nd, 1991, and September 5th, 1995, respectively. Her children were the most important part of her life.

An avid exerciser, she ran throughout her youth and later took up swimming, like her children. She was an expert painter and enjoyed playing piano in her free time as well. Her real passion though, was gardening. She spent hours meticulously maintaining her expansive garden, full of beautiful flowers and ripe vegetables. Her and her husband would spend a lot of time together there, bonding and rediscovering each other after becoming empty nesters.

Kim is survived and remembered by her mother; her sister, Andrea; her husband, Brian; her three children, Berlin, Brandon, and Alexa; her grandchildren, Louise and Theodore; and her cat, Ming.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family.

“ To Brian et al: We are heartbroken to learn of Kim's death. In our eyes and hearts she will always be the really funny, really brave, really unstoppable and really smart woman we knew so many years ago. Though it was a long long time until we met again, our feelings did not change. Kim was so strong and grounded. Having met your children we can know what a splendid mother she was.

We are so sorry for your great loss. Hers will be a big void to fill. We can only send our love to you which we do freely. We share your sadness, Ed and Ellen Diller.
