

Lawrence "Larry" Wilson

July 12, 1930 - October 19, 2019

Larry Wilson, 89, of Lancaster, PA passed away on Saturday, October 19, 2019. Born in Lebanon, PA, he was the son of the late Michael and Minnie Wilson. He attended Syracuse University studying business before being drafted into the army where he served honorably in the Korean War and earned a bronze star.

After serving, he returned to Lebanon where he founded Lebanon United Jobbers and married the late Joan Arenson. Several years later, he moved his family to Lancaster, PA where he started and operated Wilson Vending Service for many years. After selling his business, he co-owned and operated the Town Tavern in Lancaster, PA until he retired.

Larry is survived by his second wife Linda, sons Jeffrey, Michael, and Steven, and his grandchildren Stephen and Jess. He was preceded in death by his three older sisters Hannah, Pearl, and Marion.

No funeral service is planned. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial contributions be made to one of these charities: St. Jude's Children Hospital, the Humane Society, or the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Linda I'm so sorry to hear or see of Larry's passing, I haven't seen you guys since you sold the tavern, but I did like our conversations we used to have when I came in to hang out for awhile, my prayers are with you all!...

Michael Robinson - October 21, 2019 at 12:00 AM

SK

“ TO STEVE MIKE AND JEFFERY SO SORRY TO HERE OF YOUR DADS PASSING HE WAS A REAL TROOPER IN EVERYTHING HE DID. I WILL NEVER FORGET ALL THE GREAT TIMES HE AND I HAD TOGETHER WE NEVER LOST TOUCH IN 30 YR. OR MORE. YOU COULD ALWAYS COUNT ON HIM. HE WILL BE GREATLY MISSED I TRULY DID LOVE HIM SHARON

SHARON KILHEFNER - October 21, 2019 at 12:00 AM