

Leah K. Esh

November 2, 1932 - November 15, 2021

Leah K. Esh, 89, of Mount Joy, went to be with Jesus and her loving husband Amos Esh on Monday, November 15, 2021 three weeks after his passing. She died peacefully at Hospice and Community Care, Mount Joy. Born in Upper Leacock Township, she was the daughter of the late Daniel B. and Fannie (King) Stoltzfus.

Leah is survived by three daughters, Verna Dimitriou, wife of Emmanuel, Mary Dimter, wife of David, and Cyndi Garber, wife of Phil; eight grandchildren; eleven great grandchildren; and a sister, Mary Stoltzfus of Narvon. She was preceded in death by twelve siblings.

Leah loved Jesus first and foremost. She was married to her dear Amos for 68 years and their love for each other and life was contagious. She loved her family and made each of them feel special. Leah's servant heart made everyone feel welcome in their home. She had the gift of hospitality and made the best poppy seed bread ever. She had a sweet yet feisty personality and was beautiful inside and out. She loved reading her bible, teaching Sunday school, Good News Club and leading bible studies.

Leah's gift of compassion gave her the ability to shine as an ER Registrar and Chaplain at local hospitals and Hospice.

A memorial service celebrating Leah's life will be held at LCBC Church, 2392 Mount Joy Road, Manheim on Monday, November 22, 2021 at 6 PM. You are welcome to greet the family before the service starting at 4 PM. Please enter at the LCBC Auditorium South Entrance. In lieu of flowers, memorial

“ Verna, Mary Louise, Cyndi and families,
It is with great sadness and yet joy that I am sending this note to you. My sadness is that we will no longer be able to spend time with friends whose friendship we have enjoyed for many years now!
Time together at the shore, playing cards, sharing meals in each others homes!
Our joy is knowing that Amos and Leah are together with their Lord and Savior!
They were both a very important part of our life group and we had been talking about plans for our Christmas get together.
Well they upped all of us and are spending Christmas in Heaven with all the other saints!!
Even though our hearts are heavy for our loss we are rejoicing for their GAIN!
Know that we care,

“ Verna, Mary and Cyndi, this is Deb Mauro (Miller) . Joe and I knew your family from YFC days. Loved your mom and dad! They always had a smile or laugh ready when we met! Lots of fond memories 😊
How hard for you to lose them both . I KNOW they are dancing and telling jokes in heaven! Praying for you all.

“ Mary, Verna and Cyndi, it's Jill Brown from our Solanco days. This is so much loss for you in three short weeks. Thinking of you and remembering fun times with lively Leah and Amos at your home. The newspaper story on Scream in the Dark brought memories of Amos and YFC, and then, there appeared his obituary. He was a wonderful witness for his Savior and Leah was as well. I'm sure that faith is a great comfort to you now. What a lovely family they created together. So glad I knew them during our growing-up years. With my sympathy,
Jill Brown

“ Bob and I are so sorry for your loss. Leah was so kind and gracious to me through my years as chaplain at LCBC. She was a beacon light to me on my spiritual journey. She loved Jesus with a fire in her belly. She's received her reward now and for that I celebrate her life! Our love and sympathy!
