

Lester P. Eshelman

August 20, 1917 - February 21, 2017

Lester P. Eshelman, 99, of Lancaster, passed away on Tuesday, February 21, 2017 at Moravian Manor. Lester was the husband of Thelma (Beaston) Eshelman who passed away on December 15, 2011.

Lester is survived by three daughters, Sandra McIvor, Dawn Singleton and Denise Brush; seven grandchildren, McKenzie Frankel, Lindsay Briggs, Justin Singleton, Layton Brush, Roslyn Singleton, Linnea Singleton and C. McIvor; three great grandchildren, Greyson Briggs, Rowan Briggs and Madison Briggs.

He was the founder of Lester P. Eshelman, Inc. a masonry company since 1947. Lester was an active member of the Mount Joy Church of God and loved to sing with the church choir with much enthusiasm. He was also a member of the Rotary Club, Mount Joy and previously served as President. Lester loved taking walks around his property and especially enjoyed taking care of his koi pond and connecting with nature. He also loved to travel and spending time at the bay with his family where they enjoyed boating, fishing, crabbing and water skiing. Lester was quite the jokester and had a good sense of humor making people laugh and bringing joy to their lives.

Services for Lester will be private.
