“ I met Linda in 1983 at the Salunga shoe factory where we worked together. She made me laugh and was so sweet. Her children were little at the time. Around Christmas we went to her house and her children gave us small gifts. I still have a sachet Christina gave me. Also, so sad to see Christina had passed away too. Deepest sympathy to her husband and son. Had I known she lived that close I would have reached out to catch up with her. She had a beautiful heart and sense of humor. See you later in heaven Linda!
