

Lisa G. Weber

July 14, 1966 - April 21, 2026

Lisa G. (Miller) Weber, 59, of Mount Joy, passed away unexpectedly, Tuesday, April 21, 2026. She was preceded in death by her father, Lester W. Miller of Manheim, and is survived by her husband, Charles A. Weber of Mount Joy (of nearly fifteen years), her mother, Sylvia S. Miller, and her sister, Lori (Daniel) Zimmerman of Lititz and their three children: Kelsey Buffington, Alyssa Nagle, and Nathan Zimmerman. She is also survived by Charlie's two sons, Charles (Shelby) Weber of Mount Joy and Jesse (Melissa) Weber of Elizabethtown and their four children (whom she adored): Kendall, Ava, Mazie, and Melody. Lisa was a 1984 graduate of Manheim Central High School. In her youth she owned and showed several horses and ponies. Later, Lisa became an avid Harley Davidson Motorcycle enthusiast. She was creative and produced many crafts and pieces of art. She always sought solace in nature and animals, especially through camping (which she loved to do with her family and friends) and her vacations to the beach. She loved her cat, Skye, and all her many outdoor adopted felines. She enjoyed gardening---including fairies and gnomes.

She worked as a bartender and cook at several locations, most recently at the Elizabethtown American Legion, Post 329, Mount Joy VFW, Post 5752, and the Mount Joy Legion, Post 329. Prior to that, she worked for Shank's Tavern in Marietta, and for several local establishments. She also cooked creatively for almost six years with her own business, "Lisa's Little Secrets", in which she had a product-line of many desired (and very yummy) edible items.

She loved spending time with Charlie and her “girls” (her granddaughters) and was always up for a good time. She was the “life of the party” and loved deeply. She made friends easily and enjoyed working with and around her “veterans”. She was honest to a fault, was a hard-worker, a great cook, and volunteered for many causes, especially those involving disadvantaged youth and children.

A funeral service for family and friends will be held at 10 AM, Tuesday, May 5, 2026 at Trinity Lutheran Church, 47 West Main Street Mount Joy. Please note this is a service only. At the family’s request they will not be receiving guests prior to, or following the ceremony.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to: the Lancaster Vet Center, 1817 Olde Homestead Lane, Suite 207, Lancaster, PA 17601.
