“ I learned to know Lois as a co-teacher during her last eighteen years of teaching second grade at Kraybill Mennonite School. Lois could turn any experience into a teachable moment. She brought lots of smiles and laughter to our school. She had a wealth of knowledge from her travels and former teaching experiences. I learned to know her sister Thelma during those years. I had the privilege of teaching her niece and several great nieces and nephews.
Looking from my kitchen window I am able to view the Wolgemuth homestead where she lived before she moved to Landis Homes. My sympathy and prayers go out to Lois's family during this time. I know there are many special memories from her life each of you will cherish.

“ I taught with Lois at Kraybill from 2001 until she retired. Recently I lived at Landis Homes where she has been living. What a unique, gracious, witty lady she was! I enjoyed being her friend/coworker. She was a great supporter of libraries and books which showed at Kraybill.
May her family find God's presence and comfort as they share stories about life with Lois and recall how important she was in their lives.

“ Wishing your family peace and blessing as you mourn the death of Lois. I'm sure the memories God's grace will sustain you. Memories of growing up in the S. S. class together so long ago brings back the fun times we had with Lois. She was the life of the party. And then more recently when we moved to Landis Homes she was one of the first to welcome us and introduce us to people here. And she still had the wit and humor as in her younger days. God bless you all.
