“ My heart aches for you all but especially for Terry who will miss his helpmate on whom he depended so much. We in Camden, AR, have missed them both now for a number of years. Our ladies Sunday School class missed Loretta when they moved. Gil and I had many lovely times playing dominoes with them or sharing a meal. The four of us had a lovely weekend on Hot Springs on Lake Hamilton and a short ride to the Christian Motorcyclists Association headquarters in Mena a few years ago. We miss those fun times with that sweet couple. Love and hugs to you Terry.

“ May God grant you comfort and peace during this difficult time.Loretta and I had many phone conversations during the last year. She was optimistic about the move from TN.and was thankful for the support of her sons and their families. Being related to Loretta on both her father and mothers sides, we were together at many family gatherings and both of us attended the same United Brethren Church. She will be sadly missed.The Wieland Family
