“ I know Mom is in heaven hanging out with your mom. Your mom was like a mother to her. We were so lucky to have her all the years we did. We couldn't have asked for a better mom. I do have fond memories of those days husking and freezing all that corn. Thank you Mark

“ Tammy, Ted and Andy,I have lots of good memories growing up beside the Hornafius family on Barbara Street. Your mother babysat my brother and me many times. She became and remained a very good friend to my mom. I remember all of us doing corn every summer; picking it, husking it, etc.. Your mother was a sweet lady and you have my deepest sympathy.
