“ Lucy was the dearest friend. So many memories hanging out with her with my little ones, or walking up the hill for fresh milk. She helped me through some of the lowest times of my life. My kids loved her too. I always tried to visit whenever I was back from Alaska. You were and are an angel. Rest in the arms of your precious Savior my friend. Love, Dot

“ I received the sad news from cousin Joann while on vacation;the same day Lucy left us to be with Jesus is the same day Jesus gave us our daughter 42 years ago so will always think of her on July 9th and celebrate these 2 gifts God gave all of us ALL. Though my memories of Lucy are few since distance separated our families, they are memorable (both when visited with my mother when I was an adult then when I brought my children to meet “my PA cousins” about 35 years ago!!). My memory is of a Godly woman that reflected the fruits of the Spirit in every way! May you, her family, know the comfort of our Savior and His peace that surpasses all understanding . Her legacy lives on through you until we all meet again one day. In His love, Lorraine (Gramley) Morello
