“ I had the honor of meeting and getting to know Maggie through one of her best friends, Helen Weber when I first came to Florin Church. Maggie had the best personality, could always make you laugh and just beamed when talking about Ty and Jen and all her years with Ned. You now get to be with your Ned again and your good buddy Helen. Love you and miss ya Mags. My sincere condolences to the family.

“ I met Maggie at a local garden club meeting. After learning of my husband's passing she invited me to attend a widows meeting at her church. Over the year I learned what a wonderful and caring person Maggie was. When the Lord calls our love ones home, he leaves a gift of memories. Hold on to yours and let them guide you during this time of sadness.

“ Mag and I shared so many good times when our boys were young. We traveled to the beach, attended bowling sessions and enjoyed each other's company over coffee many, many times. After our boys grew up, we didn't get to see each other often but always exchanged Christmas cards and notes. I considered her a great friend who was kind, caring and full of laughter. My sincerest condolences Ty and Jen. Dallas Stoy.

So very sorry in the loss of your mother. She came in the diner now and again. Your dad would bring you in when you were a little boy. You were so cute and proud to sit at the counter with your dad. You had great parents and you being such a good guy is a testament to them. Still hold a little grudge because my dad sold our 3 wheeler to your dad. He thought we would have tipped it on the hills. Maybe that's where you got your start to motorcycles Lol You have my sympathies!

Maggie and I talked quite a bit on the phone and every ending came with her saying something funny to make us both laugh. She had quite a gift for jokes. My sympathies to both of you Ty and Jen.

Margie Stumpf was a faithful member of Florin Church and a very pleasant person. I often talked with her on the phone about plans with the Sunshine Ladies widows group that she coordinated. She always made sure our staff members were part of their special meals and treats as gifts of appreciation for our work. She was well loved and will be missed by the Florin Church family.

*Ty, I am so thankful for your mom. She was such a great friend to my mom and kept in touch with us even after mom passed away. Sam and I both loved our visits with her. She always shared such great stories of times with her and mom. I will treasure the white pumpkin she gave me last year and always remember the story that went with it. I am sure our moms our laughing together once again.
Hugs*
