“ I am known to Masi's friends and family as "ET". I knew Masi for close to seventy years from our days in Bangalore, India. I valued his friendship and respected him for his helpfulness, kindness and openness. I will always cherish fondly my memories of him. I wish to convey my sincere condolences to his dear and loving wife Sujatha who took very good care of him with total commitment and devotion to his welfare in his final days. "ET" Jacob Pandian
