“ Tia and I worked together at Lebanon Valley College where she was a much-loved member of the development staff. Her smile was so wide and encouraging that the College president once said to me, after addressing College employees at an "opening of school" breakfast, "She's the very best person to put in the front row at an event when I'm speaking. That smile just gives me confidence!" In the office we always heard updates on her children...you were the light of her life. As others have said, may her memory be a blessing, and here's to Tia and Mike reunited. -- Anne Berry

“ I am deeply saddened by Tia's passing. For many years, she and I had neighboring offices in Franklin & Marshall College's Development Office. She was a consummate professional, and her positive and kindly demeanor made her a delight to be around. With heartfelt condolences to her family,
