

Maureen O. Clayton

February 23, 2025

Maureen O. Clayton, 67, of Mount Joy, passed away on Sunday, February 23, 2025 at her residence. Born in Fayetteville, NC, she was the daughter of the late Lloyd G. and Jane C. (Patton) Holton. Maureen was the wife of the late George Louis Clayton Sr. who passed away on November 4, 2024.

Maureen was a strong independent woman who was devoted to her husband and children. She cared for her children while her husband served abroad in the United States Army. She was selfless and humble always looking after others. Maureen was an amazing cook. She spent many days helping run the MJAA concession stand with her husband.

Maureen is survived by her two children, Crystal Clayton, wife of Dawn of Elizabethtown and George Clayton Jr., husband of Vanessa of Elizabethtown; two grandchildren, Lily and Kelsey Clayton; two brothers, John and David Holton both of NC.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Grace Holton and a brother, Lloyd Holton Jr.

A celebration of life service will be private. Maureen will be laid to rest with her husband at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please send memorial contributions to MJAA, PO Box 584, Mount Joy, PA 17552.

Tribute Wall

KD

“ George, So sorry for your loss. Kathy Derr

Kathy Derr - February 28, 2025 at 03:25 PM

CG

“ To Crystal and JR, so sorry for the loss of your Mother so soon after your Father. May you find comfort and peace. From the Gardners.

charles and Joy Gardner - February 27, 2025 at 03:02 PM