“ Mel, where do I begin? You were first “my boss” but became such a great friend and co worker. I loved seeing your smiling face and sharing stories about our families, yard sales and just being there for me when I needed someone to talk to or vent to. You were a ray of light and I will never forget you! My heart is heavy, but I know you are no longer in pain. You are now in heaven with our Lord and with your mom! Until we meet again! Rest in peace Mel!❤️

“ I met Mel when my parents were at Longwood Manor back in 2007. My parents lived there until my dad passed in 2014 and mom in 2016. She was always so up beat and she gave me her chicken salad recipe that I still make. I’m so sorry to see of her passing. She always had a welcoming smile. I wish there was a service I could attend but I understand that some families want privacy 😊💕

My sincere condolences go to the staff of Paramount and to her family whom she loved dearly. She was loved by many. Prayers for all her family. She is an angel. Love, Melissa Droege Deascenti

“ Mel was always one of my favorite “friend” moms! She always had a smile on her face & every time I’d venture out yard sailing I would always seem to run into her & every time no matter how many months/years went by she’d give me a big hug! You will be deeply missed. Prayers for all family.

“ There was no one like Melody. I don't know if I ever knew a more hospitable and caring person that went out of their way for other people than Mel. I had the pleasure of working with Mel for 4 years. She made sure that I knew I was appreciated and always went out of her way to make sure I got my lunch everyday. She was more concerned that I was signed up to get lunch than I was, and if I didn't pick up my meal while it was still warm, she brought it to me so I could enjoy it at it's best. We shared a love of sweets so we often shared a piece of chocolate with each other to get through the afternoon! Mel was FUN and loved to make people smile. Even in her worst pain, she tried to hide it so it wouldn't bring anyone else down. Mel suffered like no one should. I'm relieved that her pain is gone and I look forward to seeing her in heaven where she will have the biggest hair, biggest smile and biggest table, enjoying the love she'll be surrounded by, just like the love she brought to everyone during her short life on earth. You are missed so much, Mel.---Cindy

“ My sweet Aunt, you brought the laughter and smiles to all the functions growing up. In adulthood, I always loved running into you and sharing some giggles followed by a big warm hug. I know you and Grandma Jean are so happy to see each other again, watch over us all and enjoy flying as an Angel. Love you forever❤️Jen

“ Too jessie and her family-
I remember the day i first met her, sitting on the deck nervous wreck meeting her. Was super easy to talk to and me trying to wrap my head around these massive pigs she called pets.
She accepted my son and I into her family and treated us like her own. I hope everyone in the family keeps the tradition of the holiday get together. She raised the most kind hearted kids that anyone can imagine. She will always be in forever everyone's hearts She ever touched.

“ Oh my where do I start.

I worked with Melody-(aka-Mello Yellow) for 12years. She was such a caring/reliable individual. who would always go out of her way to assist all. I will definitely cherish all my time that I got to be part of her life. As far as sharing a memory. One of her favorite things was dressing up for Halloween, she would say Shirl I got you. I never knew who or what I was going to be for the day. LOL. I think our favorite costume she created for me was a scarecrow. she showed up with everything, (clothing makeup, straw). All day she had to keep fixing my make up for I was always smudging it. You will never be forgotten by me. Rest in Peace I am so glad you are no longer in pain my friend.
