“ My mother had the biggest and kindest heart of anyone I ever knew. She would do anything for anyone and loved to make others happy. She taught me so many wonderful things and my job now is to share those things with my daughter and the world. As long as I am alive, so shall she be. I hope she knows how much I love her and how terribly I am missing her. My world will never be the same without her in it. Watch over me mama. I love you so very much. I will forever keep your memory alive.💜

“ I have so many fond memories of Nancy that it would take up way to much space. So I will say this, your wife/mom came into my life not only to become my sister at heart, but also someone that I could tell things too and share so many fun times with her. We had so much fun together that I will cherish our times that we had together for the rest of my life.
