“ Marilyn and family, your mom was the 'go to' person in the kitchen at Bube's Brewery. I remember her when I worked there in high school. She made the best ham club sandwiches in town and was so nice to all of us girls. Thinking of you at this sad time.

“ Being a grandchild meant a cake from Grandma on your birthday... and not just any old cake... she had a talent well beyond her years.. I can remember the Barbie Doll Cakes, Strawberry Shortcake Cakes... and if you were lucky enough...her Wedding cakes. Oh I can still taste the almond... oh and at Christmas.. nothing beat her her Christmas wreath! Your mouth was green for days, but it was soo worth it. Easter was awesome too, her homemade peabut butter or coconut eggs were the best!!! She loved us so hard, we will feel it forever. We lived 30 minutes away and I swear you could feel her hug the whole way home. And she always ended every visit with "I love you, come see me".
