“ Norma was my mother in law. She called me Tracy Jane even though thats not my name I secretly liked it. I was not a christian but while dating their son Scott I went to church to impress her. Her persistence made sure I was saved and changed. She gave me my first bible and I still use it 27 years later. So hopeful that she has the ultimate healing now and able to be with her beloved Russell. Until we meet again, Tracy

“ Norma was a dear childhood friend and classmate. I loved her smile, friendship, artistic nature and athleticism. We were able to see each other about ten years ago while both of us were visiting relatives in Macomb. Sorry you have lost both parents so quickly. Susan A.
