“ To my precious little sisters Lori and Krissy, and to all the grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Grandma loved each and everyone of you. You were privileged to call her Grandma, Memaw, or GG. Her life was a testimony of courage, love, devotion to her family. She faught the good fight against her cancer, but God readied her here first then called her to heaven. She was ready to go to be with her Lord and Savior. She believed that Jesus died for her sins and clung to the old rugged cross until salvation became hers. She's in heaven now in the presence of God Almighty and Jesus. I'm sure she is having a wonderful reunion with family and friends. Make sure you are ready too for each of us must make the decision to accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior, believing that He shred His blood on the cross for our sins, repent and prayer to turn from sin and live a life that is filled with the fruit of the Spirit which is love, joy, peace, patience, goodness, kindness, gentleness and self control. Someday soon we will be with Grandma again. Love, hugs and kisses my precious family.
