

Patricia K. Anderson

June 29, 1942 - April 29, 2025

Patricia K. Anderson, 82, of Mount Joy, Pa., passed away peacefully at Messiah Lifeways in Mechanicsburg, on April 29, 2025. She was the loving wife of Frank J. Anderson, with whom she recently celebrated 62 years of marriage.

Pat was born on June 29, 1942, to the late Edith M. and Arthur C. Spangenberg, and grew up in Tatamy, Pa., with pals who would remain lifelong friends. She lived in Tatamy most of her life, eventually moving to Forks Township before more recently living in Mount Joy. She graduated in 1960 from Nazareth Area High School, where she played clarinet in the marching band, once marching in the Thanksgiving Day Macy's Parade. After high school, Pat became a secretary and worked for Girard Finance Co. Later, she left that career and began working at Pioneer Sportswear in Stockertown so she could be home early after her daughter got home from school. She eventually returned to the office and worked for the Northampton County Recorder of Deeds and later for the county's human resources department.

Pat never gave up her love of music and was a longtime member of the choir and the chime choir while a faithful member of St. Peter's U.C.C. in Tatamy. She also taught Sunday School and was a leader of the Brownie Girl Scout troop that met at St. Peter's.

Pat loved the Lord, was a kind neighbor with a generous spirit and loved animals of all kinds. She enjoyed having a good laugh with friends, a big family picnic, playing board games, watching a scary horror movie, floating in the ocean, reading a good book, trying a new restaurant, soaking up a good concert, spending a sunny day fishing and boating, relaxing with family, making lasagna for birthdays, adventuring on a girl's day out, and serving up good roast beef to her grandson.

She will be deeply missed by her daughter, Theresa M. Miller of Winn, Maine, and her husband, Terrence; her grandson, Dillon T. Miller and his wife, Ashleigh Minetti, of Glenside, Pa.; her beloved nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her sister, Loretta R. Kern, and her brother, Arthur C. Spangenberg Jr.

A memorial service will be held at the convenience of the family.
