

Patrick Kent "Pat" Leaman

July 10, 1953 - May 13, 2024

Patrick Kent "Pat" Leaman, 70, of Mount Joy, passed away on Monday, May 13, 2024 at Hospice and Community Care. Born in Lancaster, he was the son of Robert Kent Leaman and the late J. Lorraine (Witmer) Nauman, wife of the late George H. Nauman. Surviving are three brothers, Robert M. Leaman (Michele) of Rheems, Timothy S. Leaman, and John D. Leaman (Mindy) all of Mount Joy. Also surviving are three nieces and 3 nephews. Pat was a graduate of Donegal High School, class of 1971. Pat worked in the printing industry for over 40 years. After retiring in 2018, he worked part time at J.B. Hostetter & Sons which he greatly enjoyed. Self-taught on the pedal steel guitar, Pat was an original member of and played for 40 years with the country band, Chicken Clark's Road Apple Rodeo. The band members and roadies were like a second family to him and he remained very close to them over the years.

Pat's wishes were to forego a memorial service. Interment will be at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Hospice and Community Care, 685 Good Drive, Lancaster, PA 17604.

“ I got to know Pat working at JB Hostetter's. Thursday and Friday evenings during the winter months often had few customers, and the co-workers had a chance to swap stories. Pat had a great sense of humor. One year, Pat shared a cd of his favorite Christmas songs. He was playing the steel guitar on one of those songs. Beautiful music and a beautiful person. He will be missed. Gayle Lawrence

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Pat through his time working at JB Hostetters. I always appreciated his sense of humor and his dedication of caring for his mother in her later years of life. I enjoyed visiting him and talking about the Phillies and different things going on in our lives. I shall miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time.
