June 19, 1933 - June 26, 2022

Paul K. Earhart, 89, formerly of Mount Joy, went home to meet his Savior on Sunday, June 26, 2022 at Londonderry Village. Born in Mount Joy, he was the son of the late Paul and Mabel (Keeney) Earhart. Paul was the husband of Beverly (Windau) Earhart with whom he celebrated 66 years of marriage. A founding member of the Hershey Free Church, Paul was an active member and served as the Jr. High Sunday School teacher earlier in his life. Most important to Paul was his devotion and love to share his faith. An avid outdoorsman, Paul loved spending time at his hunting camp in the mountains of PA. Paul was well known in his community for his smile, hugs, and laughter.

Surviving in addition to his wife, Beverly, are four children, Pastor Kevin Earhart, husband of Patti of IN, Ken Earhart, husband of Trish of Mount Joy, Lonnie Ostrander, wife of Rick of CA and Kyle Earhart, husband of Steph of CO; ten grandchildren; and fourteen great grandchildren.

“ I knew Paul from Mount Calvary Church. He sang in the quartet with my dad, Art Miller. I did not realize he had passed onto glory. He was a very inspirational man

“ Paul and Jerry Miller built their first house together as M&E builders which we purchased in 1969 on Mt. Pleasant Rd. about a quarter mile from Paul and Bev's home. Paul was a wonderful person as well as a good builder and we enjoyed our friendship with Paul and his family. RIP Paul. Bill and Carol Hopwood

“ Paul worked on my parents house in the 70's with Miller/Earhart. As a child, I remember him sharing his faith with my parents. I enjoyed his witness. My parents took us to the Hershey Evangelical Free church in the early days at the community center. A long time ago, but was foundational in my faith as a child. He was a wonderful example of Christ's love and very pleasant to be around.

“ Paul was a wonderful, godly man, who was a constant source of encouragement to me in ministry. He always said something positive and encouraging to me when we passed in the halls of the church. I loved the man. We will miss Paul on this earth but we will see him again someday when we pass from this life into heaven, where Paul now resides. Life well lived. Well done, Paul!
