“ Polly,i picked a blue candle because I know how much you loved and cherished your sons.I remember you always telling me how good they all treated you and how the Good Lord must have knew what he was doing giving you so many boys! Then you would go down your very long list of things they would do for you from looking after you, to car repairs, putting and taking out your air conditioners and all there funny stories and keeping you young at heart.We are praying they find comfort in each other at this time of great sadness to remember all of the good times that you all have shared and what lucky men they were to have such a beautiful kind and loving mother.And I will miss talking with you and reading all your many magazines you would send my way as well as goodies you would send over for Alysse.May you rest in joy and peace in heaven.Dorjan,Josh,Alysse
