“ I remember Pearl warmly, having corresponded with her on several occasions and having enjoyed several visits to her lovely home in East Petersburg. I am proud to now house some of her pieces of furniture in my Manheim home, and i think of her often because of them. You married into a wonderful family, Pearl. I know, because so did I. I'm glad we had that in common.

“ Dear Deb and family,
We were saddened to learn of your mother's passing. We want to offer our sympathy at this difficult time.

I remember the wonderful times your family gave us at Christmas time.

*Blessings,
Tobe Rohrer and family.*
