“ To his son, Rich and family, his brother, Donald, and his wonderful companion, Clara I send you my sympathies. Ralph was both a mentor and a friend to me. Our days at Binkley and Ober will always be remembered. He was a kind man who possessed a quiet strength. May all of you be comforted by our Loving God. I regret that Ann and I cannot attend the service because we will be away, but my thoughts will be filled with my memories of Ralph.Lee Ober
