“ We are so sorry to hear of Dick's passing. He was a true craftsman with his woodworking, creating our beautiful kitchen about 15 years ago, and also many of our family's kitchen. Praying for all of your family.

“ I was saddened to hear of Dicks passing and wanted to express my condolences. I moved away from Lancaster in 2007 but thought of Dick and Mim often as they were such good friends to us when we moved to Lancaster in 1987. Dick initially was a customer of mine buying plywood for his business and later he built my kitchen too. We soon became friends with common interests in water skiing and biking. Dick took me out skiing with him on the river many times and i was always amazed what a athletic person he was especially at 22 years my senior !! More importantly both Mim and Dick often had us to their house for dinner and bible class when we knew nobody in the area having moved from Boston. I was blessed to know Dick and i know all that knew him say the same thing. God rest his wonderful soul. John and Lynnmarie Verzino
