“ Dear Renee and Family. I was a 1968 Classmate of Bob's at E-town. We had occasionally been in touch via FaceBook most recently and I was saddened to learn of his passing last month. Please allow my wife Judy and I to express our most sincere condolences. Bob and I were friends once upon a time in High School, but the years separated us as well as the miles. Still though, I am truly sorry for your loss of your husband and father, and grandfather, and brother. Please allow me to share some words of comfort that have been meaningful to me at times like this. "GOD in love has promised grace for every trial, strength for every sorrow, help for every mile, and may GOD in sympathy and unfailing love impart help for each tomorrow and new courage to your heart." Remember these words of Scripture: "Cast your burdens upon the LORD, and GOD shall sustain you: The LORD shall never allow the righteous to be moved ... Cast all your cares upon GOD, for the LORD GOD cares for you." (Psalm 55:22, 1st Peter 5:7) Know that we are sorrowful with you in your loss, and joining with you in wonderful memories of Bob's life. in HIM and HIM alone, Judy and Fred Holler

“ My dearest Renee and family, I want to express my sincere condolences to you, the boys, their wives and also Dixie in the surprising loss of Bob. Bob, his Dad and Dixie lived on Groff Avenue when my husband and my kids and I moved to Mt Joy Street. Plus, I also knew Bob from school and all these years later he came into the MoJo for coffee, with the guys where I Hostessed for Nick Liazis up until 2006 when I had to quit to take care of my husband who was also ill and passed away October 1, 2011. We would laugh and talk about old times and every once in awhile after I quit working, I would run into Bob at the Weis Store. We would talk, Politics, as we were both big Trump fans, or we would talk about our Grandkids or if worse came to worse we talked about our terrible health problems. Bob never really did go into too much detail with me about his issues. I was not really concerned when I saw him the last time, as he was still laughing and being funny like always. If I would have known that it would be the last time I would ever see him again, I probably would have stayed a bit longer under the porch roof at Weis with him. Seeing his Obituary in my Emails from Sheetz Funeral Home tonight, November 26, 2019 @ 12:35 A.M. just brought tears to my eyes and my heart just hurt for you, the family and even me, I lost a great friend who will be missed by many...and never forgotten..!
