“ I met Bob shortly after June's death as we both attended Hospice's Loss of Spouse groups. Although still grieving June's death, he was so positive in his love of volunteering at the food bank, and his love of listening to music to keep himself centered. He was always ready to reach out and help others in the groups by sharing his experiences - which was SO valuable to newcomers. I talked with him once after we "aged out" of the Hospice group. He was continuing with his life without June. A REALLY nice man. You chose a great photo for his obituary. A life well lived!
