“ Sam, I remember all the times we had on THE FARM. The many times you threw me out of bed when I short sheeted yours. Oh, the many memories just flashed by. Just one for a good laugh. You were in the F.F.A. and you were workin with your steer. Training to lead him and he broke away and ran through a small gate by the milk house and smash the gate to pieces. Have a picture of TIP the good old mule with 7 children on her back.....I'm the last one. Looking forward to the day when we can recall the events. James R. Metzler, Jacksonville, FL.
