I remember her from church and from living next door as a very young child. She always had a smile on her face!

Don, I was sad to hear of your mother's passing. I will always remember the great times talking to her while we waited for you to get ready to go out running around (our old high schools days).

I often think about the time we all were sitting around your dinning table playing that game, where one person picks an object and tells your mother. Then everybody has to pick out what is it. It was always the one after the black item. Your mother was a lot of fun to be around.

Please share my condolences to the rest of your family. You and your family will be in my daily prayers during this difficult time.
