Born in Baltimore, MD, she was the daughter of the late David O. and Jane Naomi (Patterson) Hawley. Sharon was the wife of David T. Schatz with whom she celebrated 21 years of marriage.

As a mother, wife, sister, and grandmother Sharon was loving, kindhearted, patient, and compassionate. She always made her friends and family feel loved and supported. As a mother, wife, and grandmother, she was gentle and nurturing: always putting others before herself. Her love for her husband David was unmatched in its devotion and adoration. As was her love for the Lord.

She passed on her artistic skills and techniques to both of her grandchildren, Maddie and Jaxen who also find happiness in creating beautiful things. She also passed down her musical talent to her grandson Jaxen. She was a talented auto harpist who played with her best friend and sister Linda. They played together with great joy and always had lots of laughs. To David, she was a devoted and loving wife and one of her greatest joys was sharing a laugh with her husband. To Corey and Keilah she was the most wonderful mother and friend. She was a faithful follower of Christ. Surviving in addition to her husband David, are two children, Corey R. Lenherr of Middletown and Keilah Russo, wife of William of Harrisburg; two grandchildren, Madison A. Russo and Jaxen E. Russo; two brothers, William Hawley, husband of Jeanie of Perryville, MD and Wayne Dubree of Aberdeen, MD; and a sister, Linda Willis of Middletown.

“ So many fond memories of "The Sisters" camping at the Farm. That is what we call them with love! Dave was not fond of camping but he did it for Sharon! Dave, Linda and family our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Sharon always had a smile. Was always ready to play her auto harp. We so appreciated her when Dan was her pastor at Grace and Truth Bible Church. Always loved her visits to our house with Linda. I know she loved her family and the Lord. To think she beat me to sit at the feet of our Savior, maybe along side my husband!

“ Sharon was dearly loved by her family and so many friends. We have been friends for over 55 years + yrs. I met her thru my now husband in their high school. Sharon has been such a loving, sweet dear friend, so gifted. Her talent and Love was God given. Our hearts are broken but in time will remember the sweet loving memories we have of her. Her faith so so strong and her love of Jesus was mighty. We know there is such a celebration in heaven as she was guided in heaven surrounded by so many beautiful angels helping her to Jesus' arms. And so we say, we love you and will miss you, until we meet again. It will be such a joyous reunion.
