“ Sherrie is my father’s sister and many years ago when I moved back to Pennsylvania, my aunt gave me peonies and irises. The peonies came from my grandmother’s garden. I still have those Irises and peonies in my garden. It’s a lovely reminder of my grandmother and now my aunt and the beauty they brought to this world.

“ My dads sister Sherrie came to California a couple years ago and that’s when I really got to know her. I enjoyed our time. You know what though looking at pictures she always smiling no matter she was going through even when we visited years ago in Pennsylvania she was smiling. She as at peace which is a great blessing for a great woman

My daughter Jody is aware of the struggles our family had in the past living with our parents and their struggles. with Jody's personal conversations with my sister helped ease some of those inner struggles. Forgiveness is paramount to living forward. Thanks daughter. Now my sister is at peace and with the lord.

As I sat for a week and shared the bible with Sherrie, I could see the lord entering her spirit. Sherrie was in love with the Hostetter family. I saw the gleam in her eye as the boys did their thing, The animals showed her attention that she relished. Marshmallow seemed to resonate with her. Sherrie's daughter, Hope, waited on her hand and foot. I could see this gave Sherrie peace knowing her days were numbered. Daniel Hostetter was sent by God. His welcoming love of Sherrie was apparent to all and Sherrie drew comfort knowing this. Daniel's aunt Tina showed Sherrie love and respect which Sherrie welcomed. Daniel's assistance in bring Sherrie to Jesus is forever nestled in my heart.

With all this said the end of her life was indeed wonderful. Her earlier years were full of ups and downs. Even through all her struggle Sherrie always showed a pleasant demeanor about her.

Love ya Sis. See you shortly, Your brother Danny.
