“ Larry would always say or nod hello to me whenever I saw him in Elizabethtown even though I never really got a chance to talk to him at any great length. A wonderfully kind man who be missed.

“ Dear Kerry, Sherry & Laurie, Your dad was a great guy! He was always willing to lend a hand when I needed help. Every time I saw him (drinking coffee at McDonalds) he asked about my family. I was looking through old pictures this week. All of them showed a happy, loving father with 3 very active daughters. Hold these wonderful memories in your hearts. Love, Shirley Bravo
