“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Tyler was my roommate at white deer run and he was a good friend and I regret to say that after a point we didnt talk for a long time and I felt something was off and now I see why. I hope that he inspired someone to change the way addiction is viewed. Rest in peace, I hope you're the reason that someone gets clean.

I would like to extend my condolences to Jim and Deb and the entire family upon hearing of Tyler's passing, I know the last time I spoke with Jim in early 2017 he had expressed some worry and concerns about Tyler, But was still holding out hope for change, Stay strong and hang onto the precious memories of that handsome little devil who had his pops grin !
