“ To the Berrier Family, I was so sorry to read of "Buddy's" passing. We were childhood friends and neighbors on Donegal Springs Rd. and I have fond memories of him and Jerry and their Mom (who always seemed to be baking cookies when I visited) We mostly played "outside" and it was usually cowboys and Indians and he was ALWAYS the cowboy and I was ALWAYS the Indian! My condolences to all. Blessings, Gail (Shelly) Hawthorne

HE LIVES ON IN ALL WHO KNEW HIM AS HIS LIFE THREAD. DENNIS KENDELL YATES AND KENNETH GLENN HARTMAN. WE SHARE A POEM AND PRAY YOU FIND PEACE AT THIS MOST DIFFICULT TIME. GOD BLESS XXXX The Rose Beyond the Wall Near a shady wall a rose once grew, Budded and blossomed in God's free light, Watered and fed by the morning dew, Shedding it's sweetness day and night. As it grew and blossomed fair and tall, Slowly rising to loftier height, It came to a crevice in the wall Through which there shone a beam of light. Onward it crept with added strength With never a thought of fear or pride, It followed the light through the crevice's length And unfolded itself on the other side. The light, the dew, the broadening view Were found the same as they were before, And it lost itself in beauties new, Breathing it's fragrance more and more. Shall claim of death cause us to grieve And make our courage faint and fall? Nay! Let us faith and hope receive-- The rose still grows beyond the wall, Scattering fragrance far and wide Just as it did in days of yore, Just as it did on the other side, Just as it will forevermore. ~ A.
