“ Virginia was a wonderful, caring person. When I was a young child, Virginia & Paul and Butch lived on the other half of the brick farm house. She was always quick with a smile and laugh. They have been life long friends. I have many fond memories of those days. Very thankful for those memories. Blessings to you, Janet, not sure if you remember Lloyd and Ellie's family.

“ So sad to hear of Virginia's passing. Ginny was my second mom, I have many special memories of Paul, Ginny, and Butch. Our family had great vacations together. Bob, Helen and Belinda were the best of friends. Spent many week-ends together and traveling. Our last visit with Ginny was very special, she remember me with a big, beautiful smile and big hug. Special loving memories of Ginny.
