

William Edward Robbins

December 8, 1947 - December 31, 2023

William Edward “Bill” Robbins, 76, of Landisville, passed away on Sunday, December 31, 2023 at Abbeyville Nursing and Rehabilitation. Born in Philadelphia, he was the son of the late William T. and Doris Wagner Robbins. Bill was the husband of Lucy Rupp with whom he celebrated 51 years of marriage.

Bill was a graduate of Methacton High School. He later graduated from Temple University with a degree in Music Education. Bill was a music teacher with Harrisburg City School District for 40 years. He enjoyed flower gardening and planted exotic trees and plants along with maintaining two ponds in his yard. His passion was his dogs. He walked and groomed them regularly. Bill was an avid reader along with gourmet cooking and baking.

Surviving in addition to his wife, Lucy, is a daughter, Kristen Junker, wife of Eric of Ankeny, Iowa. Also surviving are two sister in laws and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The Church of God of Landisville, 171 Church St, Landisville, PA 17538.
